6. Jurisdiction:

Alpine County consists of approximately 465,000 acres or 739 square miles, with less than 2 residents per square mile. Over 55% of Alpine County has been designated as Wilderness; many riding areas contact the Wilderness boundary. An additional 39% as publicly held lands brings the total of public lands to 94%. Alpine County has numerous trails and roads located on public lands open to OHV use. Popular areas include the Monitor Pass region, with many miles of dirt and gravel roads, the Blue Lakes area, including the Forestdale Road, and the region south and west of Bear Valley and Lake Alpine. Motorized vehicles and bikes are not allowed in the County's two Wilderness areas. Most of the trespass issues occur during the winter season by snowmobile use.
