MIDTOWN SACRAMENTO – Forget shopping malls this year, fighting for parking and then buying the same old thing. Instead visit the annual Indian Arts & Crafts Holiday Fair at the California State Indian Museum to purchase unique holiday gifts for family and friends. California Indian artists and crafters come from all over California to participate in this special holiday event.

Offering items and gifts to fit every budget consider: original artwork, jewelry, hand-crafted dolls, baskets, soapstone and elk-bone carvings. Also drums, Christmas ornaments, decorated gourds and much more will be available to purchase. Shop rain or shine inside the California State Indian Museum.
