Dear Commissioners,

This is Hondo, the Good Dog of Science.

Hondo respectfully asks that you take some time before your upcoming meeting to carefully read through the article that can found at this link:

And this is Sky, Hondo's rambunctious lab partner

Sky is excited about a podcast because it regards Oceano Dunes, and he thinks it will provide some insightful drivetime listening for you in advance of your commission meeting. The podcast can be found at this link:
